

JOE M. Y. TELD, Appellant, v. ROSE JALLAH-McCAULEY, Appellee.

JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION

Decided: January 9, 1990.

When this case was called, no one appeared for appellant, Counsellor Joseph Findley of Findley & Findley Law Firm appeared for appellee and informed the Court that he had filed a motion to dismiss the appeal on the ground of appellant's failure to file an appeal bond and notice of completion of the appeal. After carefully studying the motion, which was not resisted, and relying upon Section 51.4(c) & (d); Civil Procedure Law, Revised Code 1, it is adjudged: that the motion should be and the same is hereby granted and the appeal is dismissed with costs against the appellant.

The Clerk of this Court is ordered to send a mandate to the court below, commanding the judge therein to resume jurisdiction over the cause and enforce the judgment. And it is so ordered.

NOTE: Mr. Justice Belleh not being present when this case was called for hearing, did not take part. Hence, he has not signed this judgment.
