

CHARLES JOHNSON, Appellant, v. KOLLIE M.
DAVIES, Appellee.

JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION.

Decided April 23, 1976.

At the call of this case, Counsellor O. Natty B. Davies appeared for the appellant and Counsellor S. Edward Carlor appeared for the appellee and filed a motion to dismiss the appeal on the ground that the appeal bond was defective, in that all affidavit of sureties did not describe the property sufficiently to establish the lien of the bond. Appellant's counsel conceded the soundness of the motion, and therefore made no resistance thereto. Therefore, in view of the foregoing, it is adjudged that the motion should be and the same is hereby granted, and the appeal is dismissed with costs against the appellant. And the Clerk of this Court is ordered to send a mandate to the court below commanding the judge therein to resume jurisdiction over the case and enforce the judgment. And it is so ordered.
