

JACK J. G. VANDAM, Appellant, v. FIRESTONE
PLANTATION COMPANY, Appellee.

JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION.

Decided June 17, 1976.*

When this case was called, Counsellor Joseph J. F. Chesson appeared for the appellant, and Counsellors D. Caesar Harris and M. Fahnbulleh Jones appeared for the appellee and filed a motion to dismiss the appeal, on the ground that the appeal bond was defective for not having an affidavit of sureties attached as required by statute. After studying the motion and the resistance and hearing argument on both sides, it is adjudged that the motion should be and the same is hereby granted, and the appeal is dismissed, with costs against the appellant. The Clerk of this Court is ordered to send a mandate to the court below, commanding the judge therein to resume jurisdiction and enforce the judgment. And it is so ordered.

* Mr. Justice Wardsworth did not participate in the decision.