

L. K. JOHNSON, Plaintiff in error, v.
HON. JOHN H. MARSHALL, Judge of the Provisional Monthly and Probate Court, Marshall
Territory, and the REPUBLIC OF LIBERIA,
Defendants in error.

JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION.

Decided January 22, 1971.*

Albert D. Peabody for plaintiff-in-error. The Solicitor General for defendants-in-error.

At the call of this case, counsellor Albert D. Peabody appeared for the plaintiff in error, and Solicitor General George E. Henries appeared for the defendants in error. At this stage, counsellor Peabody informed the Court that he no longer represented the plaintiff in error. After due consideration, and the case having been dismissed in the chambers of Mr. Justice Simpson and the ruling denying the petition not having been appealed from, this Court, therefore, affirms said ruling and hereby orders the lower court to proceed to enforce its judgment in keeping with the law.

* Mr. Justice Roberts did not sit.
