

MADAM JENNEH KARANKY TOURE,
Appellant, v. HANNAH TOURE-DARAMY,
Appellee.

JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION.

Decided February 18, 1972.

Michael M. Johnson for appellant. No appearance indicated for appellee.

At the call of this case the Court observed that an application to withdraw the appeal without reservation had been filed by counsellor Michael M. Johnson for appellant. After considering the application, and there being no opposition thereto, the same is hereby granted, with costs against appellant.

And the Clerk of this Court is ordered to send a mandate to the lower court informing it of this judgment.
