AN ACT TO REPEAL THE NATIONAL DEFENSE LAW OF 1956, THE COAST GUARD ACT OF 1959 AND THE LIBERIAN NAVY ACT OF 1986 AND TO ESTABLISH THE NEW NATIONAL DEFENSE ACT OF 2008

It is enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Republic of Liberia in Legislature assembled:

CHAPTER 1: ENACTMENT

Section 1.1:

That immediately after the passage of this Act, the National Defense Law of 1956, the Coast Guard Act of 1959 and the Liberian Navy Act of 1986 are hereby repealed and the New National Defense Act of 2008 is hereby enacted.

CHAPTER 2: THE ARMED FORCES OF LIBERIA

Section 2.1: Armed Forces of Liberia (AFL)

The existence of the Armed Forces of Liberia under the authority of this Act, consistent with Article 34(b) and (c) of the Constitution of the Republic of Liberia is hereby affirmed.

Section 2.2: Organization and Composition of the Armed Forces of Liberia (AFL)

The Armed Forces of Liberia shall consist of the following: The Army, Coast Guard and the Air Force, and such other components that shall be established by an Act of the Legislature.

Section 2.3: Duties and Functions of the Armed Forces of Liberia

- (a) The primary mission of the AFL shall be to defend the national sovereignty and territorial integrity of Liberia, including land, air and marine territory, against external aggressions, insurgency, terrorism and encroachment. In addition thereto, the AFL shall respond to natural disasters and engage in other civic works as may be required or directed.

- (b) The AFL shall also participate in international peacekeeping, peace enforcement and other by the UN, the AU, ECOWAS, MRU and/or all international institutions of which Liberia may be a member. All such activities shall be undertaken only upon authorization of the President of Liberia with the consent of the Legislature.
- (c) The AFL shall provide command, communications, logistical, medical, transportation and humanitarian support to the civil authority in the event of a natural or man-made disaster, outbreak of disease or epidemic. Such assistance shall be authorized by the President of Liberia.
- (d) The AFL shall assist civil authorities in search, rescue and saving of life on land, sea or air; such assistance shall be authorized by the President for immediate response by specialized search and rescue units in conjunction with other Government Ministries and Agencies.
- (e) The duties of the AFL in peacetime shall include support to the national law enforcement agencies when such support is requested and is approved by the President. Such support shall include exchange of information, personnel training, and mobilization and deployment of security contingents. At no time during peacetime however, shall the AFL engage in law enforcement within Liberia, such function being the prerogative of the Liberia National Police and other law enforcement agencies. Notwithstanding, the Military Police of the AFL may, on request of the Ministry of Justice made to the Ministry of National Defense, and approved by the President of Liberia, provide assistance to these law enforcement agencies as determined by prevailing situations. The AFL shall intervene only as a last resort, when the threat exceeds the capacity of the law enforcement agencies to respond.

Section 2.4: Contribution of Security Forces to the Military

In time of armed conflict, all Liberian Security forces shall automatically contribute to the operational defense of Liberian territory and people, according to their respective capabilities, alongside the AFL, upon the orders and approval of the President of Liberia in consultation with the Liberian Legislature.

Section 2.5: Standards of Conduct for the Armed Forces of Liberia

Members of the AFL shall perform their duties at all times in accordance with democratic values and human rights. They shall perform their duties in a non-partisan manner, obey all lawful orders and commands from their superior officers in ways that command citizen respect and confidence and contribute towards the maintenance and promotion of the respect for the rule of law.

CHAPTER 3: ORGANIZATION AND COMMAND OF THE AFL

Section 3.1: Supervision and Command of the AFL

Members of the AFL, shall at all times observe and respect the principle of civilian control of the military. Decisions for the deployment of AFL military forces are the responsibility of the President of Liberia.

Section 3.2: Appointment and Duties of the Chief of Staff

- (a) There shall be a Chief of Staff who shall be the head of the Armed Forces of Liberia and who shall be responsible for the operational effectiveness, readiness, morale and probity of the AFL. The Chief of Staff shall be responsible for the provision of all military advice and plans. He or she shall issue orders for the deployment of AFL military forces within and outside the national territory of Liberia subject to the prior approval of the President of Liberia. The conditions contemplated under Section 2.7 of this Act shall apply. The Chief of Staff shall direct and be responsible for all activities and operations resulting from the deployment.

- (b) The Chief of Staff of the AFL shall be appointed by the President of Liberia with the consent of the Senate. The Chief of Staff shall serve at the pleasure of the President of Liberia and shall hold the rank of Lieutenant General.
- (c) The Chief of Staff of the AFL shall be the principal military advisor to the President, Minister of National Defense and the National Security Council, consistent with the chain of command.
- (d) The Chief of Staff shall also perform the following specific duties:
  - 1. Preside over the AFL General Staff;
  - 2. Transmit the plans and recommendations of the General Staff to the Minister of National Defense and advise the Minister with regard to such plans and recommendations;
  - 3. Perform such other military duties, not otherwise specifically assigned herein, as are assigned to him/her by the President through the chain of command;
- (e) Planning, Advice and Policy Formulation. The Chief of Staff shall, in consultation with the Minister of National defense and subject however to the authority, direction and control of the Commander-In-Chief, be responsible for the following:
  - 1. Strategic Direction - Assisting the President of Liberia and the Minister of National Defense in providing for the strategic direction of the AFL.
  - 2. Strategic Planning - Preparing strategic plans which conform to the resource levels projected by the Ministry of National Defense to be available for the time in which the plans are to be effective.

3. Contingency Planning – Providing for the preparation and review of contingency plans which conform to the policy guidance from the President through the Ministry of National Defense.
4. Preparedness – Advising the Minister of National Defense and the President on critical deficiencies and strengths in force capabilities (including manpower, logistics, and mobility support) and assessing the effect of such deficiencies and strengths on meeting national security objectives and policy and on strategic plans.
5. Advice on Requirements, Programs, and Budget – Advising the President and Minister of national Defense on the priorities of the requirements which have been identified by the AFL General Staff, and recommending to the Ministry of National defense budget proposals for the support of the Armed Forces of Liberia.

Section 3.3: Appointment and Duties of the Deputy Chief of Staff

There shall be a Deputy Chief of Staff who shall be appointed by the President with the advice and consent of the Senate. The Deputy Chief of Staff shall serve at the pleasure of the President and shall hold the rank of Major General. The Deputy Chief shall be authorized to give instructions for the operational deployment of the AFL within Liberia. Any such deployment shall be limited to the minimum time required and shall be subject to primacy of the civil authority. The decision to authorize the operational deployment of the AFL within Liberia shall be communicated expeditiously to the Legislature.

Section 3.4: AFL General and Special staff

- (a) The AFL shall have a general and Special Staff with officers drawn from the Army, Coast Guard and Air Wing as recommended to the Minister of National Defense by the Chief of Staff and approved by the President of Liberia. The General and Special Staff shall serve in the Ministry of National Defense and shall be directed by the Chief of Staff of the AFL.
