

ORIENTAL BAKERY, Appellant, v. NATIONAL
MILLING COMPANY OF LIBERIA, Appellee.

JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION.

Decided November 19, 1976.*

When this case was called for hearing, Counsellor D. Caesar Harris appeared for the appellant, and Counsellor Joseph Williamson appeared for the appellee and filed a motion to dismiss the appeal bond in that the affidavit of sureties attached to the appeal bond failed to carry a description of the property sufficiently identified to establish the lien of the bond. Rev. Code 1:63.2 (3) (b). After studying the motion and the appellant's counsel having conceded the soundness thereof, it is adjudged that the motion should be and the same is hereby granted and the appeal is dismissed with costs against the appellant. And the Clerk of this Court is ordered to send a mandate to the court below commanding the judge therein to resume jurisdiction over the cause and enforce the judgment. It is so ordered.

* Mr. Chief Justice Pierre did not participate in this decision.