

COSMETIC COMMERCIAL CLERICAL AND
GENERAL SERVICES UNION and THE BOARD
OF GENERAL APPEALS, Ministry of Labour,
Appellants, v. NATIONAL MILLING COMPANY,
through its General Manager, ADDY WOMACK, Appellee.

JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION

Decided: July 14, 1989.

At the call of this case both parties were present in Court. Counsellor Victoria Sherman Lang for the appellee then informed the Court that she had filed a motion to dismiss the appeal for failure of appellant to proceed as prescribed by section 51.16 of the Civil Procedure Law, Rev. Code 1; Counsellor S. Edward Carlor, for the appellants, conceded the legal sufficiency of the said motion and interposed no resistance.

After reading and carefully studying the said motion, it is hereby adjudged that the motion to dismiss be and the same is hereby granted with costs against appellants. The Clerk of this Court is hereby ordered to send a mandate to the trial court to resume jurisdiction and enforce its judgment. And it is hereby so ordered.
