

GEORGE GOFAHN, Appellant, v. MUSA
KAMARA, Appellee.

JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION

Decided: July 29, 1981.

When this case was called Counsellor J. Henric Pearson appeared for the appellant, and Counsellor M. Fahnbulleh Jones appeared for the appellee and filed a motion to dismiss the appeal, because the jurisdictional steps necessary for completion of an appeal such as the filing of bill of exceptions within ten days, the attaching of a certificate from the Ministry of Finance to the appeal bond and the service of the notice of the completion of the appeal on the appellee were not taken. The appellant's counsel resisted but later conceded and withdrew his appeal. The appellant having withdrawn his appeal, it is adjudged that the notice of withdrawal is hereby noted and the Clerk of this Court is ordered to send a mandate to the trial court commanding the judge presiding therein to resume jurisdiction over the cause and enforce the judgment. And it is so ordered.
