JUDGMENT WITHOUT OPINION

When this case was called for hearing, Counsellor Mark M. M. Marvey appeared for the appellant. Counsellor Lafayette B. Gould, Sr., Legal Counsel, Ministry of Justice, appeared for the appellee.

The counsel for the appellant, Counsellor Mark M. M. Marvey made a submission informing the Court that the parties, by and through their counsels, had filed a Joint Stipulation of Withdrawal and Abatement in which they agreed to withdraw the appeal announced to this Court and accept the ruling of Mr. Justice Yussif D. Kaba made in a certiorari proceedings while presiding in Chambers. He therefore requested this Court to issue the necessary order(s) leading to the formal withdrawal of this case in keeping with the Rules of the Supreme Court. To this submission, the counsel for appellee/petitioner interposed no objection.

The Court, in addressing the submission, referred to Supreme Court Rule # 3, Part 2, on withdrawal of cases which states:

"Whenever the appellant and appellee or the petitioner and respondent shall in vacation by themselves or either counsel signs and files with the Clerk an agreement in writing directing the cause to be withdrawn and specifying the terms on which it is to be withdrawn as to cost, shall pay to the Clerk any fee that may be due him and the ministerial officers. It shall be the duty of the Clerk to enter the case withdrawn upon the approval of the Chief Justice or any Justice of the Court and to give either party requesting, a certificate of withdrawal."

Having reviewed the Joint Stipulation of Withdrawal and Abatement filed by the Counsels for the parties and being satisfied that it is in keeping with the Rules of this Court, it is hereby:

CHIEF JUSTICE
